

Gin Woolsey

Administrative Assistant
Director of First Impressions

Gin Woolsey began her real estate career in 2000 in her home town of Pueblo, Colorado, as an administrative assistant. It was there she gained experience and knowledge in the many aspects of the real estate field, including both print and internet marketing.

Gin relocated to Colorado Springs in 2006 and continued her administrative/marketing career in real estate, acquiring many friends and associates along the way.

In August of 2009, when Gin learned of the administrative opening at First Business Brokers, Ltd., she jumped at the chance to expand her horizons working in the business brokerage industry. Gin is the first person you see upon entering the office, as well as the director of your phone calls. She is also the go-to person for marketing/advertising, website maintenance, and the social media guru. Gin prides herself on greeting office guests with a smile and a positive attitude, and hopes to pass on positive energy to everyone she comes in contact with.

Gin enjoys the downtown location of First Business Brokers, Ltd., and is very social, attending and supporting many local events in the Colorado Springs community.
